Concord-Carlisle Adult and Community Education Minutes

September 8, 2017 – Ripley Conf. Room

Introduction of new members: Rosalie Weiss (Participant Rep. (Non-Voting member from Bedford, MA) and Wally Johnston (School Comm. Liason)

Sept. 25, 2017: Book shop window to be set-up. Julie Doran organizing the set-up. Theme for the window: Armchair Travel.

Christine Lear and Rosalie Weiss to help with set-up.

Need to check on Book shop dates for holiday wrapping and coordinate volunteers for that.

Armchair Travel help needed: Claudia Feeney still needs assistance from us the nights of Monday, Dec. 11, Oct. 16, Oct. 30th –Check in with her if you can help one of those evenings at Harvey Wheeler Bldg. @ 6 pm.

Jill Asser(Director) reported that the new office staff is a great team. They are up and running and doing a wonderful job.

She reported that the #'s for Instrumental Music look good. They are in a need of a talented piano teacher.

Course sign-ups are on target Jill will contact the Carlisle Mosquito and Concord Journal re: information on our programs.

Financially we ended the year on a positive balance.

Our summer music programs were successful and fun.

Driver's Ed program: 3 summer groups, 3 new instructors, the program owns 5 cars, may need a new one this year. Question as to whether we need 5 cars?

Community Ed. pays for the insurance on the cars and all maintenance costs. They are audited each year.

Community Ed. Forum Discussion: Jill to look at dates in November and location for that event.

Members: Ron Bernard, Carol Murphree, Christine Lear suggested possible leads for speakers for this event. Following up on that.

Suggestion for possible Spring Forum: Thoreau – His teachings relationship to Climate Change.

Next Meeting: September 29, 2017 – Ripley Bldg. @ 1:30 pm
